

SQUASH SUPERMARKET SERGEANT

In a short period of time SERGEANT has become the market standard for supermarket squash due to the good yields of high quality fruit. Producing a vigorous vine which sets high numbers of fruit, SERGEANT has performed well in growing regions throughout the country.

A key feature of SERGEANT is the highly uniform fruit which have a consistent fruit shape and size. Cosmetically the fruit of SERGEANT are very attractive with a dark skin colour and deep orange flesh colour. The flesh is very firm and fruit store well with good eating quality.

 HARVEST PERIOD

The information provided here is based on an average of data and observations collected from our trials. Significant variations may occur in the performance due to a range of conditions, including cultural/management practices, climate, soil type and geographic location. As a consequence South Pacific Seeds (NZ) Ltd cannot accept liability as to accuracy of this information.

VARIETY FEATURES

- Supermarket squash variety
- 1.6-2.0kg fruit weight
- Dark green skin colour

AGRONOMIC CONSIDERATIONS

- A hybrid variety
- Requires a pollinator, plant with 10% of another squash or pumpkin variety, we recommend Pumpkin Crown Prince because of its economic value

PACK SIZES

1M, 5M, 25M