

HERB WATERCRESS

CETO

CETO is a true watercress that is suitable for hydroponic and vertical farming operations. The strong peppery flavour of CETO watercress, along with the vibrant mid-green leaves, makes this variety an ideal option as a stand alone product or as an impactful additional to herb and salad mixes. CETO is a high yielding variety due to the high leaf numbers and fast growth habit. This variety is a market-leading watercress in vertical farming throughout Europe that allows the flexibility to perform in more traditional New Zealand hydroponic systems.
